No-rehearse Christmas Pageant

Everyone got to participate in this seemingly off-the-cuff (yet carefully planned) production, celebrating the miracle of new life.

HALLOWEEN!

Our Halloween party included a fortune teller, a pinata, a costume contest, and a haunted house presented by the middle-school group.

Service is our Prayer

Youth from throughout the southeast, including many from First UU San Antonio, spread new mulch on the playground at a youth event in October.

A multi-generational group brought cheer to the San Antonio AIDS Foundation hospice.

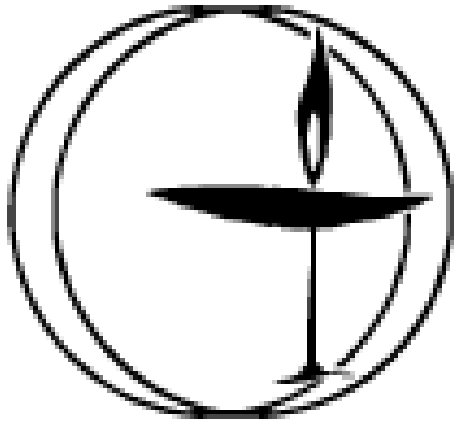

All our religious education classes wrapped gifts for families in need at Christmas time. All in all, we wrapped well over 100 gifts!

Beth Am Congregation was happy to find that our children had made gifts and decorative posters to help them celebrate Chanukah!
