First Unitarian Universalist Church of San Antonio
Resolution to Become a Reproductive Justice Congregation approved May 21, 2017

We affirm the following principles:

- We trust and respect women

- We promise that women who attend our congregation will be free from stigma, shame, or judgement for their reproductive decisions, including abortion

- We believe access to comprehensive and affordable reproductive health services is a moral and social good

We commit to the following levels of involvement:

1. Public affirmation of the principles

2. Commitment to regular education around reproductive justice issues

3. Provide public witness for reproductive justice in the political arena and the media
